

TAXING WITNESSES.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE STORY ON THAT SUBJECT.

What Commissioner Givler and Clerk Urban have to say—The Fees Received by Former Clerks of the Court for the Same Services Greater Than Now

In reference to the article published in the INTELLIGENCER on Thursday about fees for qualifying witnesses Commissioner Givler states that Mr. Brubaker was not employed as special counsel in this matter by the county. He also says that the statement corrected that the commissioners have two clerks, and says that while there are two clerks in the office, one of them attends entirely to state work and is paid for his services by the state. Commissioner Givler also stated that the present clerk, Mr. Kilian, receives $20 and 25 cents for the same services that the commissioners now agree to pay 15 cents. He thinks it is a great saving to the county by the arrangement made, for no one but the clerk of the court knows exactly how many days witnesses are in attendance. Before the contract was made he had the advice of one of the best lawyers of the bar that the commissioners had the authority to make a contract with the clerk, if there would be a saving to the county. His colleague, Mr. Leber, differs with him as to the amount to be paid the clerk. Mr. Leber favors 15 cents as the amount to be paid, and for that Solicitor Shenk was willing to approve the bill.

THE CLERK'S STATEMENT.

Deputy Clerk Urban sends the following communication:

EDITORS INTELLIGENCER: In your issue of last evening an article on the difference of opinion between the county solicitor and the county commissioners' seems to require some explanation. As I have never would not willingly create a misapprehension in the minds of the readers of your valuable paper by a partial statement of facts only. In the first place, the clerk of the quarter sessions receives the fees specified by the fee bill for taxing a bill of costs, and that fee only. This fee is received by the clerk whenever a general bill of costs is taxed by him, as for instance when a bill is ignored by the grand jury and prosecutor for costs, or in any case where the bill of costs is paid by prosecutor or defendant, in which cases the costs are simply summed up by the clerk, and the statement passed into the hands of the clerk to receive the costs, or retained by the clerk when he receives them. But in cases in which the county pays the costs the work is entirely different. A complete check and reference system has been introduced in the office, and it is capable of easy proof that it has saved thousands of dollars to the county that would have been lost by the indiscriminate payment of witness fees. Every witness is separately interrogated as to his attendance and he and his statement compared with the subpoena and records of the case, and his time and mileage is itemized on a separate bill, which is detached from a book containing a copy of the bill, and numbered as the check in the book book, and he is obliged to take an oath or affirmation to which he must subscribe in the presence of the clerk. It is then that the taxation proper comes in. A docket is kept in which all criminal cases are entered by caption, disposal, &c., and indexed, and all the witness names entered, and when paid the amount is taxed opposite the proper name. Paying witnesses in the office, and the clerk and at the pay allowed by the commissioners the poorest paid. By the way, isn't it strange that this question having passed into the hands of the clerk, the present county solicitor should only discover what a fraud it is after he himself has been approving a witness for his term of office of the clerk in which 20 cents instead of fifteen cents had been allowed by the commissioners and himself?

LANCASTER, May 5.

TO DISCUSS THE CENTENNIAL.

The Committee of One Hundred to Meet in the Lancaster Chamber.

COLUMBIA, May 4.—The centennial committee of one hundred will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the council chamber of the opera house when a number of important questions will be brought to the consideration of the members. Every member of the committee is expected to be present. When the idea of a celebration was first talked of every citizen appeared to manifest a great deal of interest in the matter and a general desire to have a celebration was shown. The newspapers devoted much space to the scheme to entice the people. Meetings were held and the preliminaries arranged for a celebration, but very few people have shown the proper amount of enthusiasm. A proposition will be made to-night to hold a public meeting in the opera house on Monday night to decide whether the anniversary shall be celebrated. From the talk in the street every person favors a demonstration of some sort, but at the meetings the interest is lacking. The idea of a public library is meeting with considerable approval and a large amount of money could be secured for this purpose.

The committee on centennial programme are requested to meet at W. B. Givler's office this evening at 7:30 o'clock.
